The Financial Ombudsman Service

The Financial Ombudsman Service is an independent organisation. They sort out complaints from consumers and financial businesses where they haven't been able to resolve between themselves.

If we haven't been able to resolve your complaint within 8 weeks, or you're not satisfied with the resolution, you can refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

If your complaint is payment related, you can contact the Financial Ombudsman Service if you have not received an acknowledgement within 15 business days or if we haven't resolved your complaint within 35 business days.

If you receive a final response letter from us, and you want to contact the Financial Ombudsman Service, you'll need to do this within 6 months of receiving our final response letter.

To find out more about the service visit financial-ombudsman.org.uk

What we'll do next

We'll always do our best to fix the issue straight away. Please allow us up to 8 weeks to resolve a complaint. We hope to do this much quicker and we'll keep you updated step by step.

We will aim to resolve payment related complaints within 15 business days. Business days are Monday to Friday.

Step 1

We'll confirm we have your complaint within 5 days after you logged it. We'll give you details of how we'll resolve your complaint and a note of your complaint reference number. Just so you know, should we need to get in touch with you some calls may display as 'unknown', 'private' or 'withheld' on certain handsets. We'll send you In App messages or SMS texts, where we can, to let you know we're trying to reach you or have an update.

We'll also send an email if you give us an email address – check your junk email in case these messages end up there.

Step 2

We'll keep you updated regularly, but if you have any questions you'll be able to contact our complaints team directly on the telephone number detailed in your acknowledgement letter/email.

Step 3

We'll try to sort it all out as quickly as possible and we'll keep you updated on the progress we're making. You can contact our complaints team over the phone. Please refer to the contact details provided to you in the text or letter you have received from us. Alternatively, should you want to visit your local branch they will be able to provide you with an update.
